LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(j.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(k.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of the Company, or the carrying-on of any business or operations which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(m.) To guarantee the obligations of any companies or persons carrying on any business or operations which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, to guarantee the payment of dividends on shares or the payment of interest on debentures of any such company, and to guarantee the payment of moneys secured by or payable under or in respect of contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, securities of any such person or company, and the due performance and discharge of any and all contracts by any such person or company:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(q.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company, or in the conduct of its business or in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada or in any of the United States of America or in any other country or place:

(t.) To establish depots in any part of Canada or in any other country for the carrying-on of the said business:

(u.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in conjunction with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(v.) To aid in the establishment and support of associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company; to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly in the employment of the Company, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent on them, by granting moneys or pensions, providing schools, reading-rooms, places of recreation, or subscribing to sick or benefit clubs or societies; to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition, and generally for any purpose which may seem likely, whether directly or indirectly, to promote the development of the business of the Company or to prevent its contraction, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(w.) To do all such other things as are or the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(f.) To acquire, construct, develop, maintain, and operate roads, tramways on lands owned or controlled by the Company, water-powers, reservoirs, watercourses, dams, flumes, conduits, aqueducts, and other works and conveniences which may to the directors seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist any such works undertaken by others:

(g.) To develop, accumulate, and utilize water-powers for the purpose of generating electricity or other motive force, similar or otherwise, and to supply the same for the production, transmission, or use of power for lighting, heating, or motive purposes in connection with the buildings and other works of the Company, with authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any surplus electricity or power generated by the Company's works, and to construct and operate lines for such purpose, subject to all local and municipal and Provincial laws and regulations in that behalf:

(h.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track or aerial or other tramway, with all necessary side-tracks and turnouts thereon for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highway, roads, streets, or bridges which are in the line of any tramway built or intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, in British Columbia or elsewhere, any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company:

(j.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to have, maintain, and operate, supply-stores and sell and deal in general provisions, supplies, and merchandise:

(k.) To farm any land held by the Company, and for that purpose to buy and sell and deal in any farm stock or produce:

(l.) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the business, undertakings, property, liabilities, and franchises of the Company to any other person or persons or to any company for such consideration and security as the Company may think fit, and in particular for the shares, bonds, debentures, or securities of any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(n.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and take over in whole or in part the business, undertaking, property, assets, franchise, good-will, rights, and privileges of any person, firm, or corporation carrying on or formed for carrying on any business similar to that which this Company is authorized to carry on, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm, or corporation:

(o.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public and other works:

(p.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing or circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this or connected with this or any other company:

(q.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(r.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage and pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to give any security under the "Bank Act" for any of the purposes of the Company:

(s.) Subject to section 145 of the "Companies Act," to lend money to any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to guarantee the contracts, obligations, and liabilities of any such person or company:

(t.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(u.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(v.) To purchase, take, or acquire by original subscription or in exchange for the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of this Company or otherwise, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares, stock, whether common or preferred, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, and other obligations in any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to the objects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(w.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, and warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(x.) To distribute in specie or otherwise any assets of the Company among its members:

(y.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions:

(z.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents of or for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(aa.) To carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or any portion thereof, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 12446.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Janion & Clark Insurance Agencies, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 1st day of June, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The address of its registered office is 1318 Standard Bank Building, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To carry on the business of insurance agents and insurance adjusters for all kinds of insurance business and all kinds of guarantee and indemnity business, and in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words, to act as general, district, or local agents for others carrying on the business of life, fire, automobile, marine, plate glass, accident, disease, sickness, burglary and robbery, theft, fidelity, and transit insurance or any one or more of them, and to appoint sub-agents:

(2.) To act as agent, factor, or attorney for any company, corporation, or individual on such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed on for the transaction of business, the management of estates, the collection of accounts, rents, interests, dividends, mortgages, bonds, bills, notes, and other securities:

(3.) To carry on all or any of the business of general commission merchants, shipping agents, financial agents, estate agents, brokers, and underwriters:

(4.) To purchase, lease, take by licence or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(5.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(6.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(7.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(9.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(10.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(12.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(13.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any share (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(14.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly calculated, to benefit this Company:

(15.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(16.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(17.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(18.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquire, including its uncalled capital:

(19.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(20.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(21.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(22.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(23.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(24.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(9.) To carry on the trade or business of iron-masters, steel or iron makers, converters, iron-founders, machine-shops, electrical shops, metallurgists, mechanical workers, chemists, and of manufacturers of all kinds of machinery, implements, tools, electrical supplies and appliances, toys, and all kinds of manufactured articles, and tool-makers, brass-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, millwrights, electrical workers, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, electrical supplies and toys, and hardware of all kinds;

(10.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, mortgage, lease, alienate, convey, repair, alter, and build all such steamers and steam, oil, electric, or gasoline launches, tugs, barges, scows, boats, or other vessels, and sailing-vessels, or any interests or shares therein, as may be necessary or convenient to the business of the Company, and to let out to hire or charter the same, and to carry passengers, mails, and freight in any of the said ships or boats, and to collect moneys for fares and for the carriage of such passengers and freight;

(11.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of carriers by land and sea, draymen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, forwarding agents, warehousemen, and wharfingers;

(12.) To avail itself of and to have hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever;

(13.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-powers for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or other channels.

(14.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(15.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(16.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, corporation, or municipality:

(17.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, leases, prospects, and lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(18.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(19.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(20.) To manufacture, buy, sell, export, import, and generally deal in ropes, cables, windlasses, tackle, and ship-building supplies generally:

(21.) To purchase, pre-empt, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary for its business, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, and the same to hold, maintain, operate, mortgage, lease, turn to account, sell, and convey at pleasure:

(22.) To purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire and hold foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, and other easements and privileges as may be found necessary or convenient for carrying on the business and furthering the objects of the Company, and sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(23.) To carry on all or any part of the businesses of general contractors and builders:

(24.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(25.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(26.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(27.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(28.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company; to lend money to the shareholders of the Company or any one or more of them with or without security:

(29.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(30.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(31.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interests, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(32.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(33.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(34.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(35.) To procure the Company to be legalized, registered, incorporated, or authorized to transact business under or in connection with the laws of any country or state in which it may lawfully carry on business, and in any lawful way obtain or assist in obtaining, within the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof, or any state or territory of the United States or any foreign country, any Order in Council, certificates of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, Act of Parliament or Act of the Legislature, or other necessary authority for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of these articles:

(36.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by and through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(37.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(38.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
